Notice.

Beginning the first of the year, THE SENTINEL decided to charge a half-rate to churches, schools, and all societies, for all locals and notices published, where there is a money consideration made by the churches, schools, societies, etc. All of the papers in the county have always charged for this class of matter, and in justice to ourselves and our contemporaries, and on account of the increased cost of all things entering into the production of a newspaper, we decided to adopt this course, and it is still in force.

From Old Friends.

J. H. Nies, Henry, than whom no man has more friends in this section of the universe than he, writes us under date of September 28, that he and wife will leave Dallas, Oregon, and pass the winter with their daughter, Ina, and husband in Medford, Oregon. Medford is in Jackson county, border county between California and Oregon. Henry says it is a nice town of about 10,000, has 17 miles of hard surface streets, a fine water system, electric lights, street cars, etc. The weather he says is just like June—fruit in abundance and very cheap. They are both well.
The writer of this remembers Medford, Oregon, in 1879, when there were only two houses in what is now a beautiful little city. Their address is 319 South Ivy street, Medford, Oregon.

The Supreme Issue.

THE SENTINEL has recently said, several times, that the Republican party requires but one issue in the coming national campaign. There will be many issues, some of them of great importance, in the fight which is soon to begin, but the tariff over-steps all others and it alone is sufficient unto victory. That we are not peculiar in this belief was proved at the "round-up" of Missouri Republicans in St. Louis, last week, when the tariff was the dominant note that ran through all the speeches. Weeks of Massachusetts, Mann of Illinois, Watson of Indiana, three men from as many states, representing constituencies as varied in their character as in their situation, each put the tariff first and foremost, and no other subject of discussion aroused an equal interest and enthusiasm in that extraordinary assembly.

There is good reason for this. All other issues are more or less extraneous. The tariff touches every thread of the social fabric. It enters into the daily life of every man and every woman, yes, and of every child in the republic. It is intimately associated not alone with what we eat and what we wear, but directly or indirectly, with all the elements of physical subsistence upon which comfort and con-tinentment and happiness are founded.
There are governmental policies of great moment that find a place, and a proper place, in party platforms, and that may affect and do affect our general progress as a nation, but there is none that comes home to the individual, enters into his door and abides with him, as does the tariff. The people of this country have once again learned the costly lesson that free trade, or a revenue tariff, however attractive it may be in theory, is absolutely calamitous in practice.
Through unfortunate division in the party that stands stanchly for the opposing principle, they have been forced to taste of the disaster that inevitably follows the application of the Democratic tariff doctrine. They realize that it has stagnated business, has checked the investment of capital, has thrown many, many thousands of men out of employment, has worked injury everywhere and benefit nowhere. The Democrats find all manner of excuses for these conditions, but they will not again deceive the voters of this generation with rhetorical untruths. The country will insist next year that the protective tariff be restored to the statute books, and upon this issue the Republican party will go back into power.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course, the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 10

ELIJAH TAKEN UP INTO HEAVEN.

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 2:1-12a.
GOLDEN TEXT—In the presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures forever more.—Ps. 16:11.

This chapter is in type the Christian's chapter. There are two chief divisions: (1) Translation vv. 1-12; (2) reception and use of power vv. 12-25. The event occurred probably 859 B. C. This is a wonderful lesson for youth as it emphasizes that the way to heaven is the way to the best of life.

I. Elisha's Testing, vv. 1-8. Since Carmel, Elijah had largely been working according to the "still small voice." He had revived the schools of Samuel, but now in some way notice was sent from God that the time of his departure was at hand. How Elisha learned this fact the record does not suggest, but he had had a great object lesson in Elijah's faithful, step-by-step obedience to Jehovah's word and doubtless was listening keenly for Elijah's words and for the voice of Jehovah. This explains Elisha's tenacity. Gilgal (v. 1) means "wheel" —our reproach rolled away, and is a picture of our salvation (1 Peter 5:7; Ps. 55:22). Elijah had already learned the lesson of being supplanted by a younger man and so he gracefully allows Elisha to follow him. "Bethel," the house of God, was a good place to tarry but not for Elisha at this time.
Now (v. 3) fifty "sons"—pupils—of the prophet seek to dissuade Elisha. Knowing something was about to happen, they "stood to view afar off," but were not willing to draw nigh, to follow like Elisha. They thereby failed to reap a rich reward (John 12:28). Jericho (v. 4) means "fragrance." It is the place of temptation (1 Cor. 10:13). This was 14 miles farther and contained a settlement of prophets. Again Elijah and Elisha passed on, the one to glory, the other to the fullness of the Holy Spirit. At Jericho (v. 5) the "sons of the prophet" evidenced greater interest than those at Bethel, but in reply to their challenge Elisha commanded silence. The last difficulty to confront them was Jordan (death), but they did not hesitate, for God had provided even for that contingency.
Neither are we to hesitate but willingly "die unto self." Here the aged prophet exercised his supernatural power and they "went over on dry ground" (v. 8). Though this journey seems to have been revealed only stage by stage, yet it was direct to the final goal, and at each stage, though they saw not the end, they knew where to go next. This loyalty of Elisha to Elijah is a great lesson for us to follow in our service of Christ—our privilege of loyalty to his cause and the blessing which will result thereby. No great victory or blessing ever comes without much travail and testing.

II. Elijah's Translation, vv. 9-12a.
Even as in the first section we see in type the plan of salvation so in this section we are taught the resultant facts and the experiments which come to us when the blessing is received.
Elisha is now encouraged to "ask," yet we have a like promise from a greater than Elisha which we too often neglect (John 14:13, 15:17). Elijah was such a mighty man of prayer (James 5:17, 18) that he was on in-imate terms with God and could therefore make such an offer to Elisha (see Acts 8:15, 17). Notice that the "fifty sons of the prophets" who "stood afar off" were not on the right side of the river to receive a like promise or enter into the same fellowship. In a sense this was Elisha's final test.
Again Elijah may not have known the plan of God that a man so unlike himself was to take the place of leadership. Elisha said, however, "If thou see me when I am taken from thee," if God gives you spiritual vision to use and to understand, then he will accept you as my successor. There must be persistence to the end and spiritual vision. "As they still went on" Elisha went up, not in a chariot but attended by chariots and by a "whirlwind into heaven." (See also Ezek. 1:4; II Kings 6:17). Elisha, the man of tempestuous fire and sword, who in his hour of weakness prayed to die, is swept out of sight amid a display of God's power in and through nature.

Note the simplicity of the record—one verse—as though such power were a simple and a common thing for Jehovah.

The translation of Jesus was quite different and properly so (Acts 1:9; Luke 24:51).

"And he saw it."

Elisha's eyes were open and he saw his departing chief, therefore he became his successor according to the promise.

As a visible proof of his new appointment Elisha let his well-known mantle fall, as he ascended, and Elisha took it and is recognized as Eli-jah's successor.

What is heaven? Read the last chapters of Revelation.

Do we live after death? Elijah and Moses on the Mount of Transfiguration, and the resurrected Christ prove that death is but the transference to another field of activity.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

It Speaks for Itself

The specifications indicate why the car is so splendidly responsive, so swift in getting into action, so comfortable, so silent, so steady; and they are also worthy of being carefully studied because they evidence how high was the standard the manufacturers set for themselves:—

One-man top; jiffy curtains; real leather upholstery; deep, soft tufting of natural curled hair; streamline steel body; oval mounted fenders; 20-35 h. p. dodge motor with removable head; full floating rear axle; Tinkern bearings throughout; imported Swiss ball bearings in clutch and transmission; waterproof Elsmann magnetos; 12-volt Northeast motor generator for starting and lighting; self lubricating chromium Vanadium steel springs; drop forgings and drawn work instead of castings.

The wheelbase is 110 inches.
The price of the car complete is $2500 (f. o. b. Detroit).
Canadian price $1100 (add freight from Detroit).
